These are the VIP Sports Betting Sites we recommend, but you might also be looking for other types of betting sites and for different sports or for different locations. We have created an extensive list of the top betting sites that will give you a full overview of our recommended choices for the best betting experience.

How VIP Sports Betting Accounts

Work

Every bookie will have a different structure for their VIP accounts. But in general, the outline remains basically the same. Of course, the details can vary significantly from one online sportsbook to another, that's why it's always worth checking around the top bookmaker's rules and regulations to make sure you're in tune with what's expected.

One thing to keep in mind is that these VIP programs are for people who are really passionate about sports betting. If you are into getting an extra kick out of your favorite sports matches now and then, you probably don't have much need for a VIP account.

However, if you roll deep and wisely want to make sure you are getting as much back for your money as you can

Almost all bookies will have more than one tier. Each one costs more money for more benefits. They can range in price typically costing a few hundred at least.

They often reserve the highest tier for even more exclusive clientele. This is sometimes, not always, an invitation-only level. In other words, the sportsbook has to see your activity, be impressed by it, and decide that you would benefit from entry in this elite club.

Once you sign up, you can start collecting rewards points. How many you will need to earn before you can cash in will depend on your level and your sportsbook.

Not all VIP programs are equal. We recommend reviewing possible rewards and prices and making an informed decision.

Do not hesitate to open a new account if you think that VIP program would better suit your needs.

After all, that is a relatively easy process that could be worth thousands of dollars to you.

Tips for VIP Bettors

It is important to make sure to protect this investment.

After all, you are putting in lots of time and money into this project. It's smart to make sure you are getting the most out of your precious resources.

So we have some tips for you to keep in mind. These tips are things that every VIP bettor should keep in mind as you choose the right VIP program for you, and also as you reap the rewards.

There is no reason to forgo the welcome bonus. After all, it after requires months of reloads after the initial deposit before being invited to VIP programs. This is still real money that you can use to make more sports bets. The best sportsbooks will let new customers claim the deposit bonus and let sports bettors continue working their way towards VIP membership.

Understand your VIP rewards

Because each reward book has different rewards and different ways to earn points, it is important to familiarize yourself with the system. Do not go blind into this. Rather, add this extra level of strategy to your betting routine.

Monitor your deposits

It is important to watch your deposits in two senses. The first is to make sure you are fulfilling the requirements of the VIP account. This is especially important for gaining or maintaining access to invitation-only VIP programs. You can use whatever deposit method you want at most bookmakers. This includes Bitcoin.

Use Additional Perks

Being part of the VIP program often comes with an account manager, and access to chat rooms or even offline events. These are all good sources for making better bets.

, and or even These are all good sources for making better bets. The account manager can help you with bankroll management, or betting strategy. You can use the VIP network to talk with other high rolling bettors. These are pools with years of knowledge, and friends to be made.

Is Having a VIP sports betting account worth it?

In order to make having a VIP account worth it, you have to know how much you bet and compare that to the potential rewards.

If you are a regular bettor who wagers good amounts of cash, then a VIP premium sports betting account is probably worth it! It is just a matter of finding the correct bookie for you.

If you are an infrequent bettor, who does not wager a lot of money, then you will probably be best suited by the free accounts.

You can still win big without a premium account, of course. History is full of examples! But by the very nature of the premium accounts, you are more likely to win big!

These bets are more likely to win big for two reasons:

The bets will likely be larger, as you fulfill monthly minimum requirements.

Account managers can give you extra insights into making the best bets.

Benefits of a VIP account

Sports betting

sites offer lots of incentives for joining in on their premium bettor programs. They want the best bettors to stick around.

One of the big benefits comes in the form of bonuses. These sometimes include beefed up bonuses with reduced rollover requirements.

Other times they are entirely new bonuses just for members of the VIP program.

Premium

accounts can also enjoy more deposit options and eased deposit limits. Similarly, withdrawals will also be more convenient. You will likely have more options, and they are often expedited.

You should also expect a dedicated customer service or account manager. These people will help you make better bets.

In other words, you not only get insights, and more money to make the best bets, you can also get a hold of that money faster and more easily.

Costs of a VIP Betting Site Account

The costs of opening and maintaining a VIP account at a sports betting site will vary from bookie to bookie. In fact, some of them will also require an invitation either from the sportsbook or from another member to be able to join.

A good ballpark range is R$1,000 as a monthly minimum deposit. You can find VIP programs for less, and you can find others for much much more. It all depends on what type of bettor you are.

Premium programs are also called loyalty programs. Because you have to meet the entry requirements month after month, maintaining a premium sports betting account can become quite pricey.

It might be something to give a trial run for a month or two. Do some calculations and find out if you have been able to leverage the premium benefits to make even more profit.

Another

drawback of having a VIP account means that you will no longer fly under the radar. The magnifying glass will be on. This is no big deal if you are most bettors, but if you are into arbitrage betting, then this might put you at more risk.

Our VIP Betting Site

Review Process

How to get in? What exactly are the entry requirements? Do you have to spend an eternity waiting for the invite? Is it worth it? Now that you're in, what do you get? Are the promotions and benefits worth the entry requirements? Transparency The sportsbook should be clear about how to get in, and what the benefits are.

Is there a

VIP betting app? Most betting sites do not offer a separate app for their VIP players.

Will I get access to exclusive VIP picks? Yes! Members of VIP programs get exclusive access to insider tips. Can I get VIP betting tips for free? Not likely. VIP betting tips are typically behind the red rope, so to speak. Can I get VIP tips for football?

Yes, absolutely! VIP programs will include tips for all the biggest sports, including football, basketball, baseball, and more. Is VIP betting for me? If you are thrilled by the exclusive and want to make the most of your high-rolling entertainment budget, then absolutely.
