Rosário Central vs. Peñarol: Polêmica e Violência red Libertadores Match

No dia 4 de abril de 2024, um jogo da Libertadores entre o Rosário Central e o Peñaroleston place at the Gigante Arrojito Stadium in Argentina, was marred by controversy and violence. The game ended with the home team winning 1-0, but the real story was the altercation that took place after the final whistle.

According to reports, the Peñarol team was celebrating their victory when one of their players, Maximiliano Olivera, was hit by a stone thrown from the stands. The stone hit Olivera in the face, causing a deep cut and bleeding.

The incident sparked a heated debate, with some critics claiming that the Rosario Central fans had been provoking the Peñarol team throughout the match. The home team's fans were accused of throwing objects at the opposing team, including stones and bottles.

The president of the Peñarol club, Ignacio Ruglio, entered the field quickly and tried to calm Olivera down. He was seen speaking to the player and helping him off the field. The team's doctor, Julio Trochansky, also came onto the field to attend to Olivera's injury.

Video footage of the incident shows Olivera with a cut on his face and covered in blood. He appears to be in a state of shock and is seen being led away by his teammates.

The Rosário Central fans were accused of throwing objects at the Peñarol team throughout the match.

The game was interrupted for several minutes as the players and staff of both teams tried to calm the situation. The referee, José Argote, spoke to the players and tried to convince them to continue the game.

The incident has sparked a major controversy in the football world, with many fans and commentators condemning the violence. The Rosário Central club has yet to release a statement regarding the incident.

The game was a vital one for both teams, as they are fighting for a spot in the last 16 of the Libertadores. The Peñarol team is currently in first place in Group G, while the Rosário Central team is in third place.

The game was played in front of a packed crowd at the Gigante Arrojito Stadium, which has a capacity of over 40,000 spectators. The atmosphere was tense, with both teams creating chances throughout the match.

In the end, the Rosário Central team emerged victorious, thanks to a goal from their star player, Leonardo Ponzio. The game ended 1-0 in favor of the home team.

The incident has raised concerns about the safety of players and spectators at football matches. The Conmebol, the South American football confederation, has yet to comment on the incident.
