Dress-up

is a children's game in which costumes or clothing are put on a person or on a doll, for role-playing or aesthetics purposes. In the UK the game is called dressing up. In the mid-1990s, dress-up games also became a video game genre in which customizing a virtual character's appearance is the primary focus.

Paper dolls [edit]

The extension of playing dress up onto dolls made of paper can be traced back as far as the mid-1700s.[1] They have enjoyed great popularity around the world, as they are relatively cheap to produce, yet still offer a rich, dress up experience. They had been published in books, in newspapers and in magazines. In the 20th century, the genre was dominated by dolls created by artist Tom Tierny.[2]

Virtual dress-up [edit]

Interactive dress-up game

In the mid- to late 1990s, webmasters began creating interactive virtual dress-up games in which a person could drag and drop clothes onto a paper doll-like image. One of the most notable early adaptors of virtual dress up technology were the Kisekae Set System (KiSS), which were developed in Japan. These stand-alone games featured a manga-styled model and a small wardrobe. The next phenomenon was Dollz: small, pixel-art GIF {img} that were presented scattered on websites, and allowed users to be dragged onto the pixel dolls.[3]

Dollz are generally created by taking a base body (a drawing of a bald and naked body created for this purpose), and then drawing hair, clothes and accessories onto it. The creators are usually women.[4] Dollz were first created to be used as avatars on The Palace Chat Program in 1995. The invention of dollz is attributed[5] to Melicia Greenwood (also known as artgrrl, or shatteredInnocents), mainly because of her detailed web publishing on the history of dollz. Her new avatars were freely distributed on the main Palace server, the "Mansion". Within weeks thousands of creatively modified dollz were redistributed around the many Palace servers, replacing the default smiley face avatars that were previously used.[6] Many teenagers adopted dollz avatars as a sign of rebellion against older Palace users.[4]

Adobe Flash [edit]

By 2007, dress up games

had changed. With the introduction of Macromedia (later Adobe) Flash technology, the number of dress-up games creator dramatically increased. Flash offered a visual-based way for artists to learn simple programming, and put a powerful tool in the hands of doll enthusiasts. The number of games and websites grew, as companies found easy success in a market that was previously under-supplied.

Doll maker renaissance [edit]

In the late 2010s, a few websites managed by dedicated dress up fans utilized Adobe Flash to create dress up games that also allow complete customization of the featured character, advancing the genre to "doll makers". These applications also featured extensive hairstyle and clothing choices, allowing for longer gameplay.[3] The games pushed beyond the usual stereotypes of the genre, and expanded to more pop culture and fantasy themes.[7]

La progresión de Eslovaquia en la Eurocopa 2024 y el papel central de Stanislav Lobotka

El progreso de Eslovaquia a la ronda de 16 de la Eurocopa 2024, donde se enfrentará a Inglaterra en Gelsenkirchen, ha sido un esfuerzo de equipo, pero las actuaciones de un hombre en particular han destacado especialmente. Stanislav Lobotka ha sido central en el éxito de Eslovaquia en Alemania, literal como figuradamente, entregando actuaciones sobresalientes en la victoria por 1-0 sobre Bélgica y el empate decisivo 1-1 con Rumanía. No sorprende que el centrocampista defensivo de 29 años esté vinculado con un gran movimiento fuera de Napoli este verano, pero lo que quizás sea una sorpresa es que su relación con los seguidores eslovacos no siempre ha sido fácil.

La relación de Lobotka con los seguidores eslovacos

Lobotka siempre ha sido bien conocido en Eslovaquia por su ética de trabajo y actitud humilde, pero antes del Campeonato Europeo anterior, algunos de los seguidores nacionales no querían que estuviera involucrado. No estaba en buena forma y se informó que estaba pasado de peso cuando regresó de una lesión. No fue el mejor momento para Lobotka o Eslovaquia, quienes fueron eliminados de la Eurocopa 2024 después de una derrota por 5-0 contra España.

La llegada de Francesco Calzona

Eslovaquia ha mejorado significativamente desde entonces y Lobotka ha sido clave en eso. Un momento crucial llegó en el verano de 2024 cuando la Asociación Eslovaca de Fútbol nombró a Francesco Calzona como entrenador de la selección nacional. El italiano nunca había trabajado anteriormente como entrenador en jefe, pero tenía una amplia experiencia en entrenamiento, más notablemente como asistente de Maurizio Sarri en Napoli. Calzona fue recomendado a Eslovaquia por Marek Hamsik, el poseedor récord de apariciones y goleador de todos los tiempos de Eslovaquia, quien ahora forma parte del personal de entrenadores de la selección nacional.

El crecimiento de Lobotka

"Lobotka no es solo bueno recolectando balones; si quieras jugar un estilo de fútbol donde seas dominante, construyendo desde atrás, pasando por las líneas del oponente con conducción, en Lobotka tienes a uno de los mejores jugadores europeos en su posición", dice Adrian Gula, un entrenador eslovaco que conoce a Lobotka mejor que la mayoría porque, en 2010, lo llevó al primer equipo del AS Trencin.
